

MASTER OF ARTS IN ART EDUCATION

From The Art of Education University

An online master's degree designed for practicing art teachers.

Hundreds of art educators around the world are earning their master's degree from The Art of Education University. It's the largest graduate program in Art Education in the United States.

Accredited graduate courses have been offered since 2011. Thousands of art teachers have taken courses for license renewal, salary advancement, and professional development.

Unlike most programs, the Art of Education University is dedicated to art education.

Practical: Our students apply their learning to their classroom and instruction the very next day.

Engaging: The program allows collaboration with other art teachers around the globe, which is something many art teachers crave but can't access.

Relevant: Students get feedback from their professor on every assignment, every week. Our faculty are experienced and qualified art educators who hold a terminal degree or a MA with unique experience.

Accreditation You Can Trust

The Art of Education University is an accredited online graduate university offering a master's degree nationwide.

The Art of Education University is accredited by the Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC).
